Violet never wanted to move to Perfect.

Who wants to live in a town where everyone has to wear glasses to stop them going blind? And who wants to be neat and tidy and perfectly behaved all the time?

But Violet quickly discovers there's something weird going on - she keeps hearing noises in the night, her mum is acting strange and her dad has disappeared.

When she meets Boy she realizes that her dad is not the only person to have been stolen away...and that the mysterious Watchers are guarding a perfectly creepy secret!

What a quirky yet creepy adventure story. This book lures you in with a mystery from the eyes of Violet, who has just moved towns due to her dad's new job as an ophthalmologist. The town that she has moved to seems practically perfect in every way - perhaps there's something in the water (I'll let you read on to find out). Violet meets a mysterious boy called well, Boy and the two work strongly together to uncover the secrets, face perils and locate missing family members. As the book goes on, we come to realise that perhaps Perfect, is not so perfect after all. I loved that there were so many twists and turns and the pace was quick enough to keep me on the edge of my seat. The characters were well thought out and had some tough decisions to make. I would recommend this book to anyone who loves a good adventure or mystery story.

Happy reading!
